About

Welcome to the School of Art + Art History + Design

The University of Washington School of Art + Art History + Design is the center for creative innovation and study at one of the world's leading public research institutions. The School's focus on interdisciplinary collaboration and the development of new practices enhances both studio-based learning and critical engagement. Our students are inspired to learn through a rigorous classroom experience, competitive internships, and international opportunities. Learning from influential faculty, alumni, and a network of visiting artists, designers, and scholars, students of our undergraduate, master's, and doctoral programs investigate and create in an environment of possibility.
