Visiting Artists + Lecturers

The Division of Art and its programs regularly host visiting artists and lecturers. These include distinguished alums as well as local and international speakers. A few examples are: Mel Chin, Joe Davis, Wynne Greenwood, Rock Hushka, C. Davida Ingram, Shio Kusaka, Ellen Espeharance, Jim Melchert, Jeffry Mitchell, Milenko Prvacki, Susan Robb, Beth Sellars, and Jordan Wolfson.

Critical Issues in Contemporary Art Practice

Since 2013, this public lecture series has taken place each winter quarter in conjunction with Art 361. Videos of most lectures are available in this Vimeo album. Read more about each series via these year links:

2017
Melanie Gilligan, Susan Mogul, Rhea Anastas, Cameron Rowland, Hannah Black, Wendy Red Star, Lise Solskone

2016
Josh Faught, Steffani Jemison, John Knight, Park McArthur, Amelia Saul, Martine Syms, Anicka Yi

2015
Cedric Bomford, Liz Craft + Pentti Monkkonen, Fabian Martí, Mitch McEwen, Gareth Moore

2014
Daniel Baumann, Paul Elliman, Geoffrey Farmer, Amanda Ross-Ho, Allyson Vieira, Stephen Vitiello, Jennifer West

2013
Raymond Boisjoly, Jason Dodge, Tue Greenfort, Tamara Henderson, Diala Khasawneh + Ola Khalidi (Makan), Isla Leaver-Yap, Sam Lewitt, Oscar Tuazon

Other Opportunities

People may also want to take advantage of the lectures and events hosted by other departments and venues on campus:

- Henry Art Gallery – Exhibits + Programs
- Digital Arts and Experimental Media (DXARTS)
- Comparative History of Ideas
- Simpson Center for the Humanities
- Architecture
- Comparative Literature, Cinema & Media

The School

- About
- People
- Advising
- Calendar
- News + Events
- Spaces
- Research
- Support Us
- Contact Us