DESIGN 483 A: ADVANCED INTERACTION DESIGN

- Winter 2018

Meeting Time: MW 11:30am - 2:20pm
Location: ART 236
SLN: 13483
Instructor: Axel Roesler

Catalog Description:
Explores the role of visual interface design and interaction flows in technology-driven work settings. Introduces techniques for knowledge elicitation and design of interactive systems in expert domains or special use contexts to develop interface that are useful, understandable, and usable. Prerequisite: DESIGN 383.

GE Requirements:
Visual, Literary, and Performing Arts (VLPA)
Credits: 5.0
Status: Active
Last updated: October 17, 2018 - 9:02pm

Source URL: https://art.washington.edu/courses/2018/winter/design/483/a