Husky Coronavirus Testing

Husky Health & Well-Being provides a central online resource for access to health and wellness services across the campus. Services include:

- The Counseling Center for personal counseling, assessment, referral, and crisis intervention services to currently-enrolled students (206-543-1240).
  - How to make an appointment
  - Coping with COVID-19 related stress
  - Healthy academic strategies
  - Contact urgent care services if you feel you need immediate assistance due to being in crisis
- UW LiveWell for support and case consultation for students experiencing personal hardship, including academic hardship as the result of extenuating life circumstances (206-543-6085).

Forefront Suicide Prevention is focused on reducing suicide by empowering individuals and communities to take sustainable action, championing systemic change, and restoring hope (206-543-1016).
