IN MEMORIAM – KENNETH PAWULA

Submitted on September 28, 2019 - 7:59pm

The School has learned that Professor Emeritus Kenneth Pawula passed away on June 29, 2019. He was 84 years old. Pawula was born in Chicago and received his master's degree from University of California at Berkeley in 1962. He began teaching at UW as an Instructor in 1965, and he became tenure-track faculty in 1967. Pawula was promoted to Associate Professor in 1974. He had one-man exhibitions in Seattle; New York; Minneapolis; Osaka, Japan; and Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. His work is in the Seattle Art Museum, the Henry Art Gallery, and other collections.

Ken Pawula; detail of portrait by Julie Van Tosh, 1990