Glass: Teaching Opportunities

Winter and Spring 2022

The School of Art + Art History + Design at the University of Washington welcomes applications for teaching appointments in the 3D4M concentration within the Division of Art. Two full-time appointment periods are available, Winter quarter 2022 and Spring quarter 2022.

As per the University of Washington's Diversity Blueprint, the institution prioritizes attracting and retaining a diverse faculty that reflects our diverse student population. Faculty in UW's School of Art + Art History + Design provide comprehensive, interdisciplinary visual art education to a highly diverse student population, on a campus with more than 60,000 students, including 31% first-generation college students, over 30% Pell Grant-eligible students, and over 31,000 faculty and staff from over 70 countries across its three campuses. Candidates from traditionally underrepresented communities are especially encouraged to apply.

The 3D4M program at the University of Washington is a consortium that includes Ceramics, Glass and Sculpture and explores interdisciplinary exchanges that revolve around material study, concept and critical dialog in a dynamic studio-based environment that reflects and supports the nature of contemporary art in the context of a leading research university.

Qualifications: applicants must have an MFA—or foreign equivalent—as well as a strong professional and academic record, and teaching experience beyond graduate school.

The ideal candidate will possess expertise in contemporary glass studio practice, emerging material technology and theory. This is a full-time position with two glass classes assigned per quarter at the beginning, intermediate and/or advanced level, and will actively collaborate in developing and initiating innovative curriculum and pedagogy at all levels of glass, 3D4M, and within the School's MFA community. They will participate fully in all 3D4M faculty responsibilities.

Applications: interested applicants should provide a letter of interest, artist statement, resume (including contact phone number), list of three references and 20 images by the preferred deadline of September 20, 2021. Please submit all materials as a single PDF (12MB maximum file size) to: uw3d4m@uw.edu. Questions should be addressed to Professor Michael Swaine, Chair 3D4M: uw3d4m@uw.edu.
