

Locating Design Jobs in HuskyJobs

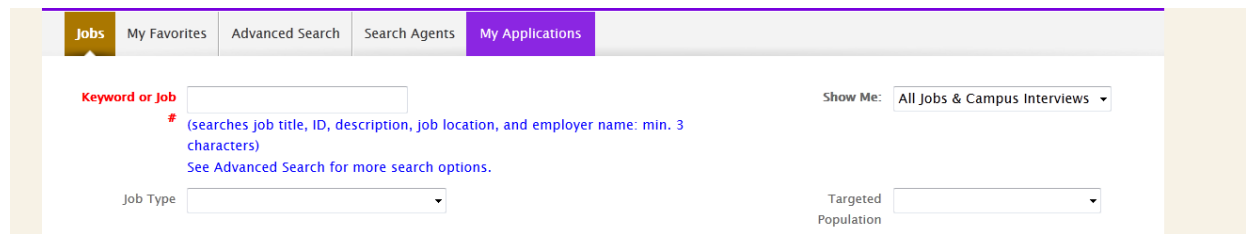

Log into your HuskyJobs account at www.huskyjobs.washington.edu/students

- Username: your username is your @uw.edu email address
- Password: If you have not previously accessed HuskyJobs, use the 'Forgot Password' feature to trigger an email containing a temporary password

Once in your account, click "Search Listings" on the navigation bar. Select the option for "All Listings":

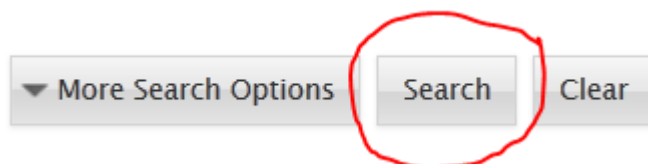

Scroll down until you see the 'Job Search' customization fields:

Go to the 'Targeted Population' drop-down menu and select 'Design':

Click the "Search" button to view search results. Job and internship listings that are returned in your search results are those deemed by Career Center staff to be of potential interest to candidates in the UW's Design programs.
