

Program Statistics and Demographics

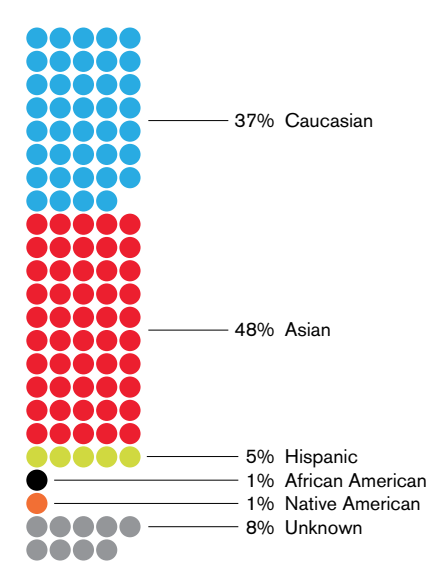

Class Size

Over the past six years, the average size of the graduating class in Industrial Design has been 18 students. Grey bars indicate student attrition.

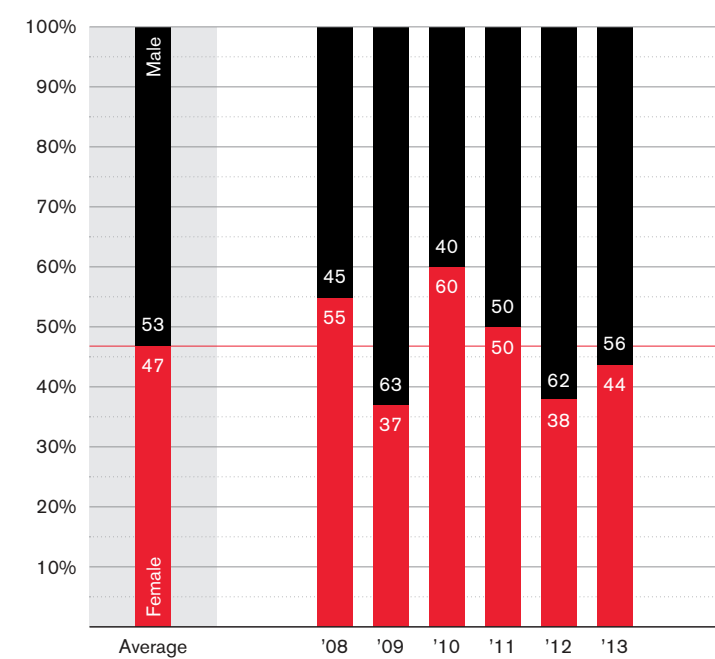

Ethnic Composition

Nearly half of all ID students are Asian (48%), and 37% are Caucasian. Other ethnicities account for the remaining 15% of students.

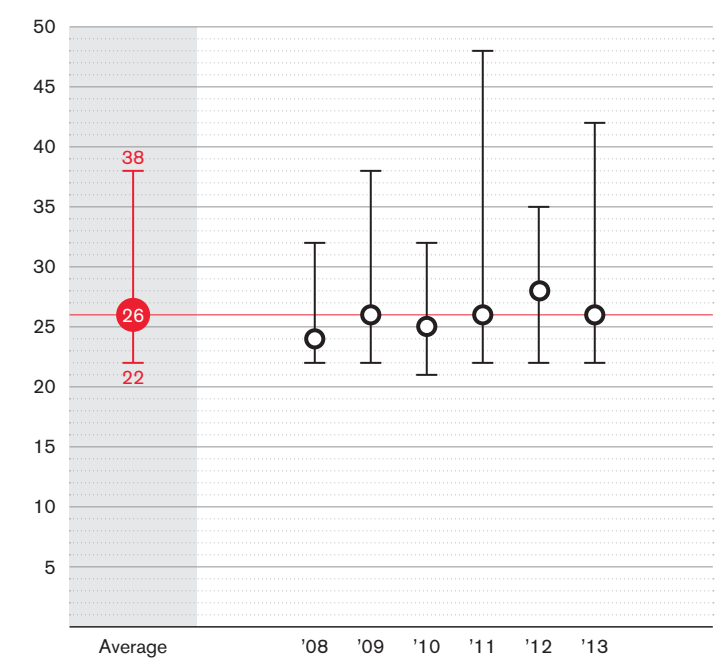

Gender Ratio

ID has traditionally been a male-dominated field, but the UW ID program is almost evenly divided between males and females.

High, Low and Average Age at Graduation

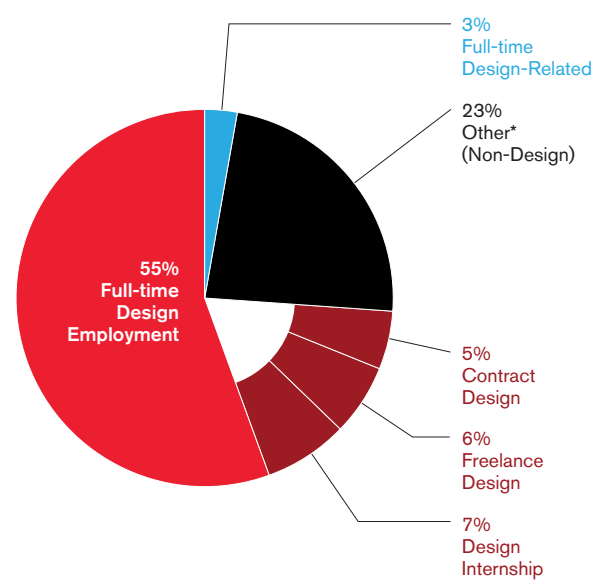

The average age of ID students at graduation is 26. This average has been relatively consistent over the past six years.

After Graduation

Initial Employment After Graduation

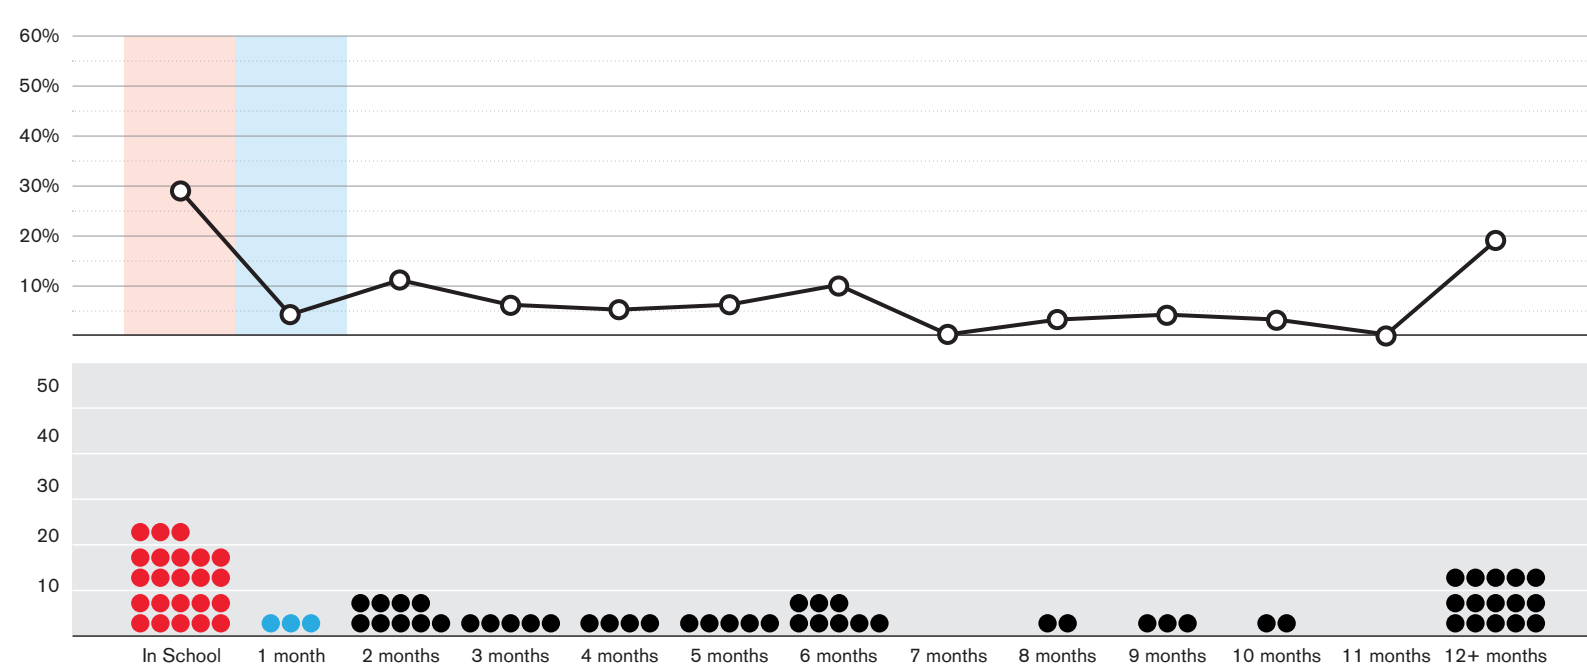

The first job after graduation may be a full-time position, a design internship, or contract/freelance design work.

*Other includes both part-time and full-time non-design employment.

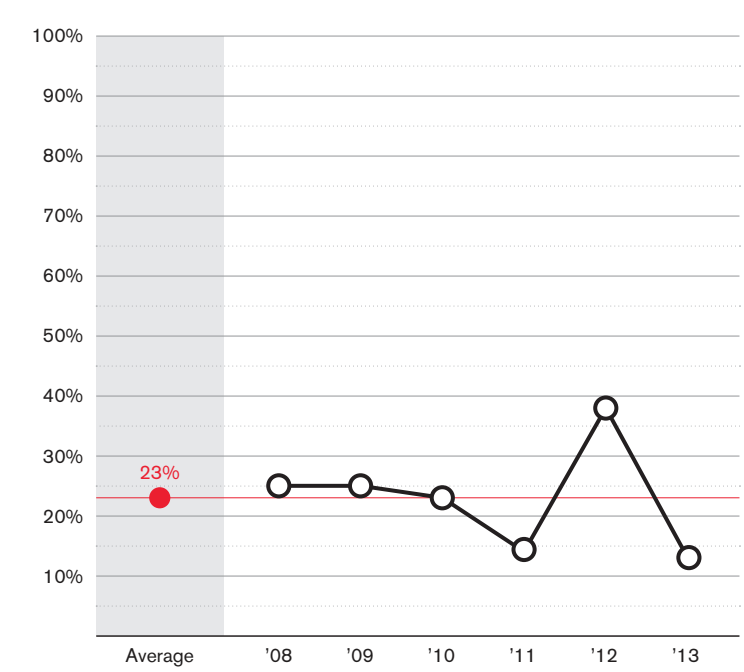

Time Until Initial Employment

Half of all ID alumni find employment within three months after graduation; 81% secure employment within one year of graduation.

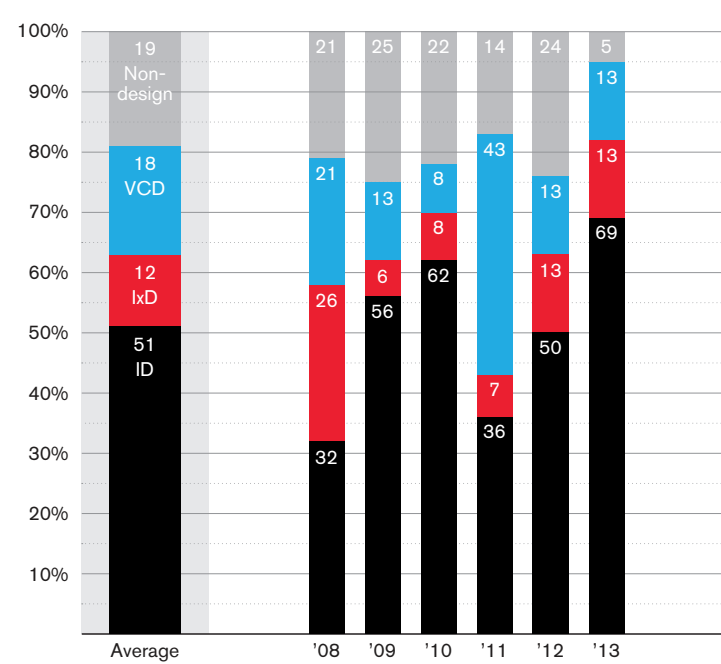

Use of Design Placement Agencies

Approximately one quarter of ID alumni have worked with a design employment agency after graduation.

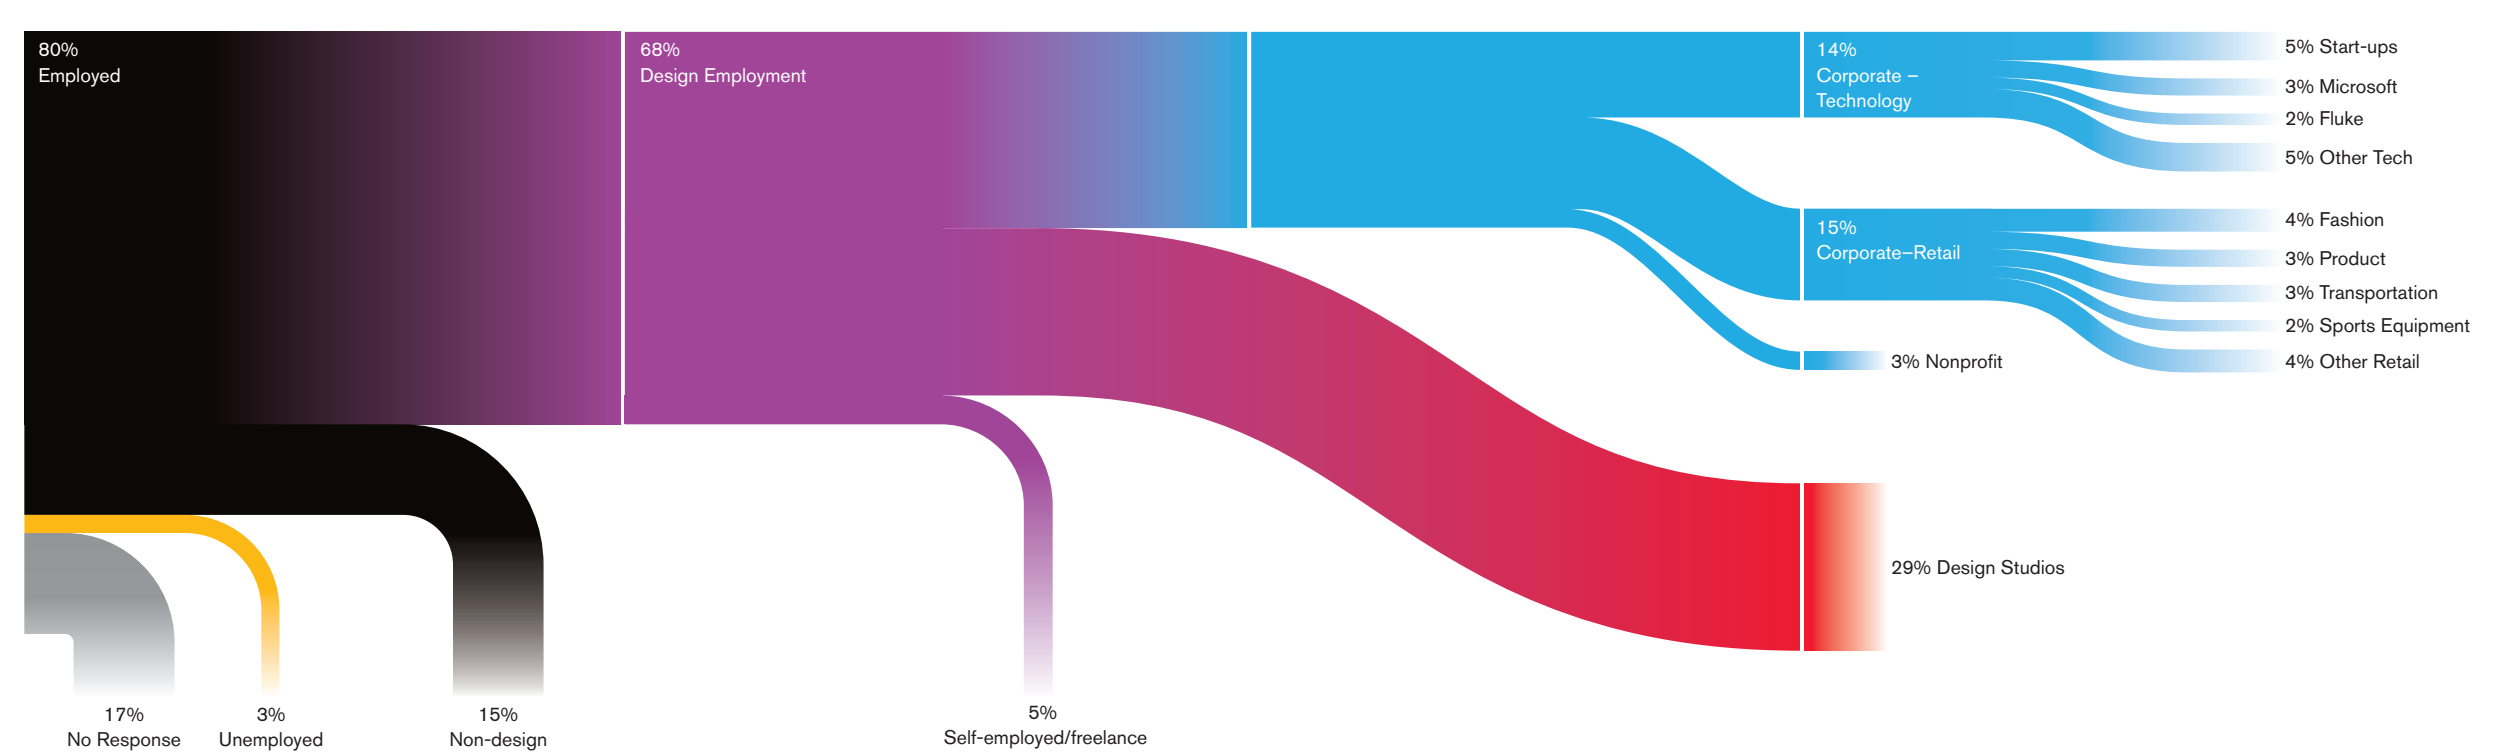

Current Alumni Disciplinary Focus

Approximately half of all ID alumni work in the field. About one third (30%) work in the design industry as visual communication or interaction designers.

Current Alumni Employment

Of 105 alumni, 84 are currently employed (three alumni are unemployed, and 18 could not be contacted). ID alumni are almost equally split between corporations and studios, with a small percentage (5%) being self-employed.

Industrial Design Employers

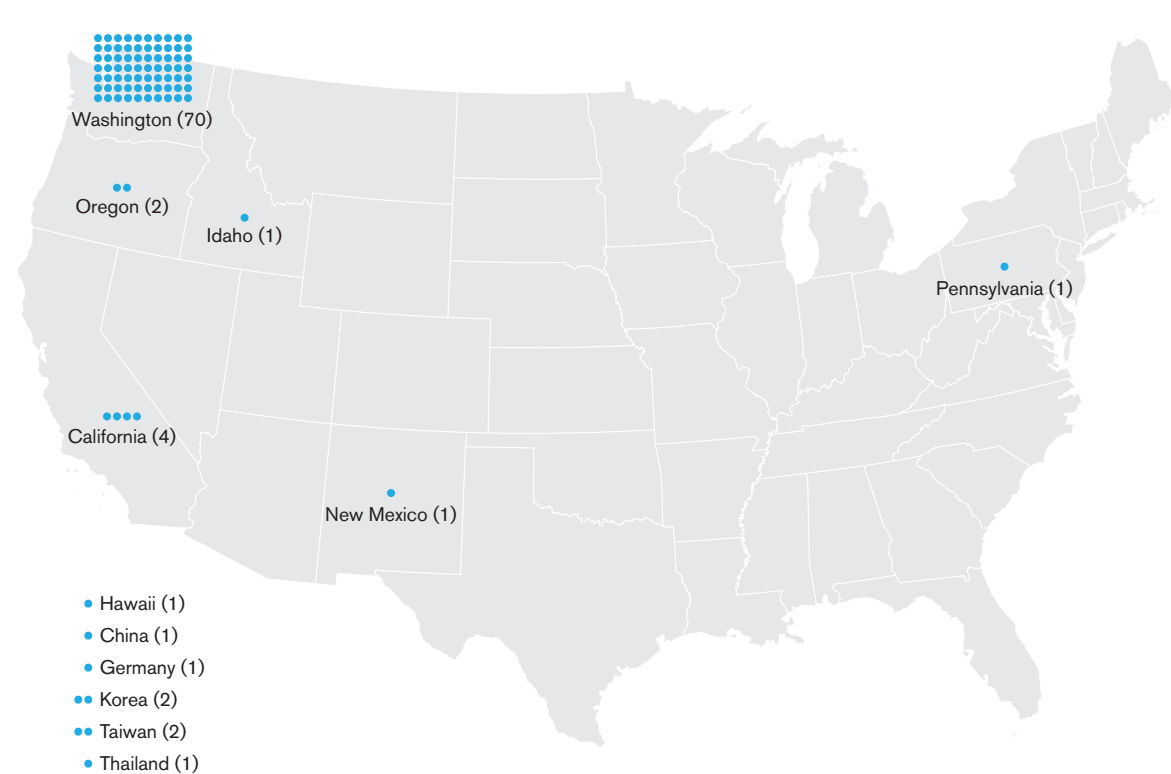

The following is a partial list of corporations/firms that have employed ID alumni. Teague is the largest single employer, currently employing six ID graduates.

- Aether Things
- Alexander Exhibit
- Amazon
- Arcimoto
- ASUS
- Baden Sports
- Boeing
- Fluke Corporation
- Iacoli & McAllister
- IDEO
- Jacob Jensen Design
- KGC
- Levi's
- Lippincott
- LUNAR Europe
- Microsoft
- Pacific Engineering
- Philips Design
- Pillar Products
- PitchBook
- SmartLab Toys
- Stone Table Design
- Tactile
- Teague
- Tether, Inc.
- True Fabrications
- WA Shoe Company
- ZGF Architects

Location Before and After Graduation

The majority (80% = 70/87) of ID students are from Washington state. After graduation, most alumni (67% = 58/87) remain in Washington, with 38% staying in Seattle. A small group (11%) of alumni have relocated to California (primarily San Francisco and Los Angeles), and 5% have relocated to New York City.

Before Graduation

After Graduation

